Dear Harold,

Jim Schmitt has identified two of the Washington, D.C. telephone numbers on your list of calls from a certain N.O. address:

456-1414 is the White House Office (source: Government Organization Manual),

232-3092 is the Soviet Embassy (Ambassador's residence), located at 1706 18th St., N.W. (source: Information, 202-555-1212). This number appears twice in Lee Oswald's notebook (16 H 40, 16 H 61).

Jim's check of the other numbers [redacted] gave negative results.

We would appreciate a copy of the following documents, mentioned in your letter of July 22:

CD 1347, pages 8-15, 44-48

CD 20, pages 7-8, 24-25

Sincerely,
Paul
